

which meeting I have been invited by the Rev S. L. Pomroy.

Anticipating the pleasure of meeting you on that occasion I remain

Yours very truly

J. C. Sullivan

Asa A. Phelps.

Rev. J. C. Falloway

J. F. Jones May 18th 1844

39

May 17. 1844

My dear Sir

I thank you for your information respecting the May Meeting at Boston and for your kind invitation to visit you on that occasion. —

Since then some domestic matters, together with the peculiar position of our affairs just now on a religious point of view, have determined me to abandon the anticipated pleasure of a trip to your City this year. — It will be very much more convenient for me to attend the Conference of the Congregational Ministers at Bath on the 25th of June, to